Jazz on Jefferson Celebrates 15th Annual Festival

SAGINAW, Mich. – Classic cars, music, food vendors and thousands of people will line Saginaw’s historic South Jefferson Avenue for the 15th annual Jazz on Jefferson event Wednesday, June 6.

This one-night celebration attracts more than 3,000 visitors and counting each summer. The festival kicks off with a performance by the Saginaw High School drumline at 4:45 p.m.

Festivalgoers can enjoy a variety of activities such as: food from local vendors, a classic car and motorcycle show, Hoyt Library’s hospitality tent, free carriage rides and so much more. The Castle Museum will also feature its popular strawberry shortcake.

The evening ends with a free concert by the New Reformation Band at 8 p.m. at First Congregational Church – all other street events will close at this time.

Jazz on Jefferson is a cooperative project of the Jefferson Avenue institutions coordinated by the Castle Museum. It is supported by an ArtReach grant from the Saginaw Arts and Enrichment Commission and a grant from Saginaw Celebrates Summer program sponsored by Hemlock Semiconductor. Additional sponsors include: The Cathedral of Mary of the Assumption, Public Libraries of Saginaw and the Castle Museum of Saginaw County History.
